OUR LIFE AT OAKWOOD —

Studying a

Each year we gain valuable knowledge through many subjects. We are offered a variety of academic courses—English, history, civics, economics, biology, chemistry, physics, algebra, geometry, Latin, French, Spanish, and many more. This year German was added to the curriculum.

Of course there is always the test—whether it be a quiz, a weekly or a six-weeks' test, or a semester exam. But our testing program does not stop here! Our scores in Every Pupil Tests are compared with those of students all over the state.

Preliminary District State Scholarship Tests are taken in the latter part of March. Students receiving the three highest scores in each test go to Miami University to participate in the finals there. We are quite proud of those who win high places in both the county and the state.

A real challenge is presented to us through these tests which prove most valuable. In each grade, seventh through twelfth, there are certain tests, given by the psychological department, which the entire class is required to take.

In January many seniors spend extra hours preparing for the Senior Scholarship Tests by coming early in the morning for special review periods.

College Board Examinations, which some colleges require for entrance, cannot be overlooked. These tests are very important to many juniors and seniors who are planning to attend college.

And so as we study and learn, thus increasing our knowledge, testing becomes an accepted phase of our work. It is an activity from which we are unable to escape!

Seniors meet in the library for a required mental maturity test.

Variety of Subjects . . .

Students learn how science affects their every day living through practical application of chemistry. Mr. McClellan distributes the necessary chemicals so students can test for acids, bases, and salts.

Miss Campbell's colored slides and descriptions of her two summer trips to Mexico highlight her Spanish classes. Having seen some real bullfights, she is able to explain the correct procedure to her students.

By the use of his giant slide rule, Mr. Juniper is better able to help his advanced math students solve their problems.

Developing Our Talents

We work hard not only in our academic courses but also in the arts. Art, mechanical drawing, home economics, industrial arts, and printing courses give us the opportunity to develop our creative talents and have fun too. After working all year on many projects, we have a chance to display them in the Four-Arts Exhibit. Our senior high gym comes to life in the middle of May as drawings cover the walls and projects fill the room.

Through the training they receive from mechanical drawing boys learn to be neat and precise in their work.

Girls in home economics learn to be future home-makers by developing their skill in sewing and cooking.

The Do-It-Yourself craze is nothing new to students in shop. With the help of Mr. Gato the boys produce some outstanding projects.

in the Four-Arts . . .

All of the students are dressed up with excitement and enthusiasm. Excitement and enthusiasm is very high as everyone is anxious to see who has won the ribbon.

Tickets and proceeds go to help many items placed in the school by Mr. Hoffman's class. Miss Hoffman and her class have done much of their work and they will do a fine Arts Exhibit.

We get helpful hints from other schools as we play host to the S W B L Student Council Conference.

Planning for the School

Seniors attempt to discover their main interests

Planning for the future, five Oakwood seniors and Miss Mary Turton take a battery of tests given by Miss Turton to determine what work will be best suited to them.

The senior class of high student councils plan events and activities for the student body during the year. This year, the theme of the year is "The Year of the Student." An annual election of the student body trustees is held. This year, there is a total of 800 students in the school. The school year starts without faculty members, as the new school year begins.

On October 19, students from all over the state of Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Colorado gathered at the University of Wyoming for the annual High School Student Council Conference. The conference was organized by the Wyoming State Department of Education.

The deans, Miss Hadeler & Mr. Hummon, willingly take time to discuss entrance requirements to college with seniors.

Showing School Spirit —

We honor the football team at an afternoon pep assembly

The Southwestern Buckeye League Trophy for sportsmanship was awarded our sch... because of the excellent school spirit shown on the football and basketball teams and by the students in the stands. Priv... received by the student body, this honor proved that clean fun is worth fighting for.

A special cheering section at the football games helped to have better organized cheering. Cart wheels by the cheerleaders added to the pep and enthusiasm of our yell. The band seemed louder and better than ever this year.

An added feature to the girls' hockey team were the Pep Boys, who led cheers at the hockey games. They also helped the cheerleaders at some of the football games.

The team makes a dramatic entrance on the field before the game

At Oakwood, another interesting feature was a tennis. A game to the whole school was played on the grass.

On the first day, the girls had a tennis game.

Winter Indigo

"All work and no play" is certainly not our motto. From October through February, classes are always in the making for either a senior's or sophomore prom. Each class works hard to make its prom the biggest and best social event of the year. Girls dressed in beautiful gowns and boys in their very best suits or tux all have fun in the cleverly decorated gym. The seniors' "Winter Indigo," the junior's "Oriental Holiday," and the sophomore's "A Night in the Rockies" are memorable events for all. Many opportunities for responsibility and leadership are connected with the prom, for everyone in the class has a chance to help with the planning and org-and Friendship . . .

Country dances at the Y.

We all enjoy getting together with our friends. After school, we usually go to the "Y" or the "Y" Club House to meet. Many parties and dances are also held at the "Y" during the year, the most popular being the New Year's Eve Dance.

There are many informal get-togethers at the "Y" throughout the year. These include the annual Christmas party, the Easter Egg Hunt, the Fall Festival, the Winter Carnival, and the last meeting of the year.

The "Virginia Reel" and "Charleston" keep the "Y" vibrating!

Since it began in the community, the Hi-Y's and Tri-Hi-Y have money for World Service.

Working for fellow students, the OAK LEAF staff issues a paper every two weeks.

Working for Others . . .

The Oak Leaf staff at the Oakwood High School put hard work into their school newspaper to try to help world relief funds.

Sponsored by the Girls' League, baskets for needy families are filled at Thanksgiving time. During the Hungarian crisis the JCOWA took charge — collecting food and money for the Hungarian Relief Fund. And there are always the various Community Chest, Pohio and Red Cross throughout the year.

It is now the time to send Red Cross relief boxes for countries overseas.

And Achieving Our Goal

This is our life in the City of Oakwood at Oakwood High School and we are its students. We will try to keep the fine ideals it has set — to have faith and honor, to be worthy, true, and steadfast. For Oakwood

*This lasting heritage we'll hold
As dear to us as Blue and Gold*

Class of '57 Greets First Day

On October and November were the school year 1957 started its stay at Oakwood High School under the able guidance of Miss Baker, Mrs. Bender, Mr. Kuhns, and Mr. Juniper, senior advisers.

Extra-curricular activities took up almost as much time as studies. All in the Family was presented by the class in November under the direction of Mrs. Wood, assisted by student directors Ben Brown and Joan Schneider.

Soon after the class play came the semi-formal Winter Ind. Built around a motif of blu-
liver, the dance was a huge success. Glenn Cooper and Martha Jane Ross were in charge of setting up all committees.

After the Christmas holidays, the seniors had to get down to some serious studying. Not only were first semester exams coming at the end of January, but College Boards and Senior Scholarship Tests also appeared in the near future. But all the hard work was well worth it for Dick Miller, Steve Hartman and Ben E. Stier were placed among the Senior Scholarship Tests.

With no breather in between, seniors plunged into research for their winter exams. They could be seen idly walking the halls with note cards and Dayton Public Library books and muttering irrelevant phrases with the words id. and ob. cu. on them.

After research themes, the class began planning for their variety show. Polly Pees and Bob Williams were in charge of setting up committees for the Varieties. Practice was directed by Judy Van Slyck, Joan Schneider, and Glenn Cooper. The variety show was a huge success and was well worth the hard work.

And finally after 6 years came class day, baccalaureate, and graduation. Baccalaureate was held at Westminster Church, June 2, and commencement at NCR Auditorium on June 8.

Juniors Possess Strong Unity

The junior class had a fine record of students with ability and leadership. Eleven of the thirteen man basketball team were juniors, while a large number won football letters and participated in spring sports. Twelve of the girls won hockey letters.

The class of '58 also revealed talent in the music field with many members in the band. Dick Thompson, Bill Freudenberger, Carol Deebach, and Charles Comer showed great promise here, and Dick won second place in the state music contest. Judy Stolle and Kathy Gibbons proved their dancing abilities at various times during the year.

Many juniors participated in Junior Achievement with Brooks Walker, Chuck Stuart, Clay Thompson, Busan Wall and Danny Morris holding office in their companies.

Molly Brown and Denny Daily reigned over their prom, "Oriental Holiday." The class play, Little Women was very well presented.

Students Doug Payne and Deanna Bryant were on the KXOWA television program, Music Box. Sandy Grinnell and Anne Koppe won first place in the Town and Country Halloween window-painting contest.

In all, the juniors have proved to be an outstanding class and shown that they are well prepared to accept the responsibilities of being seniors.

Sophomores Enter Senior High

The sophomore class ended the year with a lone list of accomplishments. By contributing the most to the Community Chest and the Humane Relief Fund, Mr. Andrews' homeroom, S-11, led the various drives.

Music held a prominent place among sophomores with Linda Vosmer, John Gray, Pam Harrington, Doug Fritz, and Bob Nunn in the band. Members of the girls' ensemble were Sue Ardery, Robin Alexander, Abby Griffith, Carol Lusk, Nancy Allen and Carol Stone.

Oakwood's most successful reserve football and basketball teams in many years were sparked by sophomores Skip Kunst, Dave King, and Bob Jaeger. They were impressive in football, while Randy Thrasher graduated to the varsity basketball team and started the game against Butler. Cheering the boys were Abby Griffith, Sue Young, Carol Lusk, Nancy Thiele, Cindy Must, and substitute Carol Wietzel.

Queen Abby Griffith, King Randy Thrasher, and their court — Dave Teegarden, Karen Blu, Bob Crew, Sue Brundree, Bob Gebhart, Maureen McDonald, Bill Boswell, and Sue Young — ruled over their prom, "A Nite in the Nineties."

Freshmen Show Varied Abilities

As the leader of the junior high, the freshman class had a good record. Ninth graders participated in all activities offered at Oakwood and excelled in many outside the school. Bob Judd and Tom Kneisley were honor newsboys; Bob was also honored for his Scout work by receiving the rank of Eagle Scout. Bob Mitchell, also an Eagle, received the God and Country award, a high scout honor.

Music claimed many freshmen. Sharon French, Carol Cunningham, Margy Todd, Sue Spitler, Sue Brumbaugh, Virginia de Bruyn Kops, Kris Stump, Kay Andrew, and Sue Scott sang in the girls' ensemble. A boys' octette was formed by David Montgomery, Bert Smith, Bob Judd, Ronny Kocher, Larry Loschert, Steve Carr, Tom Martin, and Craig Johnson.

Many of the freshmen proved their ability in speechwork in the Prince of Peace Contest and in debate. Karin Olson and Walter Nielsen received superior ratings on the clarinet in the district music contest.

In the sports' world the class showed great promise. The ninth grade football team was undefeated this year. Phil Munger was the only freshman to make the reserve basketball team, and Bruce Comisar became the only ninth grader in the history of Oakwood to have played varsity and reserve football from the beginning of the season.

Eighth Grade Prepares For Leadership

This year's eighth graders proved worthy of accepting the responsibilities that go with assuming the leadership of the junior high next year.

Besides participating in all school events, many joined in outside activities. John Beckman received the Eagle Scout award; Jill Reeder and Jacque Pickrel rode in horse shows last fall. John Bohrman performed often with the Y.M.C.A. swimming team, while Mike Creager won baseball awards. David Thomas and John Sisson won tennis trophies, giving hope to Oakwood's future championship tennis teams.

Eighth grade members of the band and the chorus took part in the music concerts given at Christmas and in the spring. Showing outstanding talent in —— were Sue Craig, Dottie Corwin, and Vonne Lunde. John Olt and Bob Hughes were in the Dayton Boys' Chorus.

Homeroom J-4 spearheaded the Hungarian Relief Drive for the junior high. Joining the class this year were two Hungarian boys—Zoltan Sari, promptly nicknamed Zoli, and Deszo Racz, commonly known as Dic.

Eighth graders provided the drive that resulted in new records for the football and basketball teams. Many girls practiced hockey in the fall under the watchful eye of Miss Havner, who said she has high hopes for their future.

Seventh Grade Enlivens Oakwood

During the course of the year seventh graders showed that they could adapt themselves to Oakwood very well. They entered the junior high with fond memories of Harman and Smith and carried on the traditional rivalry for a while. Soon, however, they became as staunch Oakwoodites as the rest of us. They contributed generously to the Red Cross, Community Chest, and Polio drives.

Many members of the class proved outstanding in a variety of activities. Duane Walters, an excellent pianist, travelled to Chicago to take part in a concert there. George Purcell won two awards for piano solo at a meeting of the National Federation of Music Clubs in Wilmington.

Many seventh graders were active in sports this year and put forth a great deal of effort to help the football and basketball teams. The girls were initiated into the worlds of hockey and badminton. Fay Ziegler and Chris Harlan were on an A.A.U. basketball team during the winter. Bob Brundige won many tennis and baseball trophies in outside competition.

Class elections proved a new experience for seventh graders who chose Paula Stone, Jane Walton, John White, and Bob Brundige as class officers. Class leaders, chosen by the entire junior high, were Karen Alexander, Jane Thiel, and Georgia Husink.

Honor Society Strives For Leadership

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY OFFICERS. Gerard, secretary; Riber, co-auditor; Madden, co-auditor; Abel, vice-president; Grout, president.

The National Honor Society strives to promote scholarship, leadership, citizenship, and character. With Dave Grout, president; Bruce Abel, vice-president; Betsy Gerard, secretary; and Sally Madden and Cora Riber, co-auditors, meetings were held every Wednesday noon under Miss Baker's supervision.

Activities began early in October with the induction of twenty new members at an assembly program.

Serving as store clerks in the N.H.S. store, members sold needed school supplies each noon. This was one of the many ways it served the school.

At Christmas Beverly Johnson was hostess at the annual tea for members and alumni.

Repairing the tower and quadrangle clocks was a very worthwhile project for N.H.S. members. They also provided prizes for all who placed in the state in the Senior Scholarship and State Scholarship Tests.

Honoring the graduating seniors, a farewell picnic closed a busy and worthwhile year.

STUDENT COUNCILS. Seated: de Brown Kops, Walton, M. Peterson, adviser; Mr. McGowin, adviser; Eichenhauer Olson, William Teegarden, Stephens, K. G. H. Standing: Breen, D. K., F. J. H., H. C., S. W., S. S., A. Giffen, M. Farren, Mrs. Nease, Brundige.

Councils Direct Student Affairs

School affairs were directed successfully under student council president Jack Hyde, and adviser Mr. Patterson. Other officers included Floyd Graham, vice-president; Suzie Headley, secretary; and Molly Brown, treasurer.

At the request of the student body a student cheering section at football games was established.

The council also served as hosts for the annual Southwestern Buckeye Conference on December 14. Here they discussed ideas and problems of high schools and conducted a panel discussion before the senior high.

The most profitable and interesting project the council was originating an honor study hall. This was one of the greatest steps the members have ever taken toward creating honor among students. Seniors, juniors, and sophomores interested in this project applied for admission to the honor study hall and were screened by the study hall teacher, Mr. Patterson, and finally the student council.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS. President: S. Headley, secretary M. B.

IOWA OFFICERS — Mr. Kubik, adviser; Mrs. E. C. Lee, Lois Devel, vice president; Linda M. ICRA — representative; Ben Brown, pres.

The Junior Council on World Affairs led by — Brown, president; Lois Devol, vice-president;
Martha Ross, secretary treasurer; Linda Mansfield, ICRA representative; and Mr Kuhns, adviser. held meetings every Monday noon. Films and panel dis-ussions on many crucial subjects were presented.

A Hungarian Relief Drive and a U.N. Week program were the chief projects of the year.

Oakwood's JCOWA took part in the World Institute at the Dayton Biltmore Hotel in October. India's problems were discussed by students and speakers. On March 9, six delegates were sent to the Model Congress Assembly at Fairview High School where they discussed human rights, the Middle East, and technical aid.

"Newswordy," a special television program, was presented on WLW-D. It was modeled on the well-known television game, "Down You Go." Don Powers and Deanna Bryant were the first panelist.

Two main member shared in the projects and programs of the club.

League Unites Girls

Women organized and to work for the good of this City. The girls started the year with a city picnic and the new girls. Officers for the year were present. See Courchene as president, Mrs. S. Lee Mockbee; secretary, Nancy A. Schlesier; Miss Hadler.

The girls' spirit was shown when they created their own school and community service.

A girls' Community Service Project Cross Country race was held for the benefit of the girls and their family members.

One of the most突出的 events of the year was the Girls' Day of April 7. The title of the day, held in the school gym, was "All About You."

The last event of the year was the Girls' League Big Sister Party. This was the ninth grade girls' opportunity to make new friends in the senior class of the school.

Pen and Brush Inspires Artists

PEN & BRUSH OFFICERS: T. Griffith, president; K. Stump, secretary; Koppe, treasurer; Wasmuth, vice-president.

Pen and Brush Club membership climbed to 113 this year under the direction of the club adviser, Mr. Cunningham. Members last year officers were Tom Griffith, president; Tom Wasmuth, vice-president; Anne Koppe, secretary; and Kris Stump, treasurer.

Twenty Oakwood students entered the Scholastic Art Show in Cincinnati and won forty-five awards. Sue Densler, Roger Williams, Kristin Stump, Tom Griffith, Linda Cunningham, Pat Ellis, Beth VanWazer received first place awards. Oakwood students also won awards in illustration, jewelry, ceramics, cartooning, and oils.

In the spring the annual Four Arts Exhibit gave all students a chance to display their year's work. Ceramics, art prints, sketches and many other types of work were judged by prominent art experts. Also in this display were exhibits from the home economics, manual training, and printing.

Another activity was selling Oakwood ballpoint pens.

The Junior Red Cross, under the advisement of Mrs. Griswold, has been a very active school organization. Officers were Martha Smith, president; Molly Brown, vice-president; Nancy Olt, secretary; and Robin Alexander, treasurer. They report the successful accomplishment of many worthwhile projects.

During the Christmas season, the Red Cross sponsored the filling of gift boxes to be sent overseas for needy children. This project was under the direction of Mrs. Russell. Selling Oakwood book covers at various times during the year by the members was one of their many projects. Another worthwhile project the Junior Red Cross sponsored was the filling of a chest to be sent overseas. This school chest was filled with school supplies, health articles, and athletic equipment for an overseas school.

Members attended many rallies and meetings arranged by the downtown bureau throughout the school year.

To kick off their annual Red Cross Drive, the Red Cross sponsored the showing of the movie, "We Serve." The combined junior and senior high contributed a total of $122.50 in the drive.

NFL Encourages

Oakwood placed over seventy students in the local churches in the primary Prince of Peace Contest. Seventeen students placed first in the local church contests and the same number placed alternate position or second place. In the county contests, Judy Van Scovk, Deanna Bryant, and Abby Griffith won first places. In the district contest before the semi-finals Judy Van Scovk and Abby Griffith competed at churches near Columbus. Mrs. Wood is director of all speech activities.

The Junior Dramatics Class has studied the history of drama and the cinema theatre thoroughly this year.

The Senior Dramatics Class worked on different excerpts from Shakespeare and one-act plays.

In the Ohio High School Speech League and National Forensic League speech contests Beverly Brown, John Fleischauer, Ed Gray, Floyd Graham, Abby Griffith, Jack Heyde, and Peggy Pees placed well. The last four qualified for the State finals.

"ALL IN THE FAMILY," the senior class play, opened the 1956-57 dramatic season at Oakwood. Presented on November 18 and 19, it was the story of a husband and wife who discover their teen-age son George is a grouch. Cast as George were Steve Huffman and Bob Williams. Peggy Potts and Judy Van Slyck played the mother and Bruce Abel and John Fleischauer the father. After the Saturday night performance, Lurey Johnson gave the cast party.

The juniors presented their class play, "LITTLE WOMEN," on March 8 and 9. Their choice of "LITTLE WOMEN" was the first costume play given at Oakwood in a number of years. Following the Saturday night performance, the cast party was given at Sharon Bahl's house.

On April 6 the sophomores gave their adaptation of "ONCE UPON A STORM" by Betty McDonald. Following tradition, the freshmen class presented a class play in May. All of these productions were under the direction of Mrs. S. Wood.

Consisting of fourteen members, the ACORN staff began the busy production of their yearbook in September. Careful plans to revise the ACORN so it could have a new forward look started early in June. Miss Campbell, ACORN adviser, and co-editors Laura Johnson and Carolyn Brown spent many long hours coordinating the activities, which appear in the opening section.

Clicking typewriters, the slashing sound of the paper cutter, the closing of file drawers, and echoing voices were familiar sounds in the ACORN room. S 8

After spring vacation all the confusion died down, and finally everyone realized that the finished product was a huge success.

OAK LEAF co-editors Janet Patterson and Mary Altick and their busy staff worked hard to produce the school newspaper. They found that measuring up for articles, reading proof, or traveling to the printer's shop were all big tasks. Miss Crisman, adviser, arranged for some of the reporters to have interviews with Harold Stassen, Richard Nixon, and Julius La Rosa.

This year Oakwood's Alpha Omega chapter of Quill and Scroll initiated sixteen new students in an effective candlelight service. To become members of Quill and Scroll International Honor Society for High School Journalists, students were required to demonstrate outstanding journalistic ability and to rank in the upper third of their class. Officers for this year were Janet Patterson, president; Carolyn Brown, vice-president; Julie McFetridge, secretary-treasurer; and Sally Madden, program chairman. Many interesting programs were enjoyed at meetings held the first and third Thursday of each month.

Increasing interest in athletics and providing service to the school and community were goals set by the Varsity "O" Club. Members proudly wear their sweaters with gold school letters, symbols of a Varsity "O" member. Membership is open to boys who earn a varsity letter in any major sport. Officers were Dave Grout, president; Floyd Graham, vice-president; Dave Young, secretary; Nick Warring, treasurer, and Mr. Small, adviser.

Bands Achieve Musical Excellence

MAIorettes AND DRUM MAJOR L. Yate M. R. S. G. E. K. N. V. H.

The girls' band took part in numerous school activities under the direction of Mr. Walker. They gave many interesting half-time performances during the football season. The band was led by Carol Nancy Von Hoff, Jane Fulkeison, and Marian Billing. The pep band also played for the pep assemblies during the football and basketball seasons.

Officers for this year were Marie Owen, band captain; Sam Hart, band leader; Carl Stroh-ser, sergeant, drum major; Lyle Sisson, sergeant property; Lucy Stein, sergeant, attendance; Sharon St. John, sergeant, librarian; Denne Bruce, corporal property; Nancy Von Hoff, corporal, librarian; John Gray, corporal, head drummer.

On November 8, the band and band parents sponsored a concert given by the United States Marine Band. Profits from the concert went to buy new uniforms for the band.

Wearing new uniforms, the concert band presented its first concert, "The Blue and Gold Parade," on February 19. On May 10 the band gave its spring concert, featuring Linda Yates, pianist and Marie Owen, flutist.

The band received a superior rating at the district competition.

Reigning over homecoming and celebrating Lumberjacks were Homecoming Queen Sally Madden and her court. Entering the field in five new convertibles, they were escorted to the platform in the center while the band played "Sweet and Lovely" in honor of the Queen and her attendants. Dave Grout, honorary football captain, presented the Queen with a bouquet of roses and crowned her with a white floral crown. The Queen and her court—Diana Prugh, Suzie Headley, Betsy Gerard, and Nancy Craig—watched the rest of the game from special seats on the 50-yard line.

The Homecoming Dance sponsored by the Student Council was given in the gym immediately following the game. Bob Williams and Linda Mansfield were co-chairmen. Decorations consisted of paper helmets each bearing the name of a player. Queen Sally Madden and King Nick Warring reigned on a dark blue and gold throne which was surrounded by yellow mums. Seated around them were their court and escorts, who were members of the team.

After the Trotwood Madison game the annual "Basket Ball" highlighted the close of the basketball season. The "Y" was decorated with red and white streamers. King Nick Warring and Queen Suzie Headley and their royal court reigned over festivities. Chosen as their court by the senior boys were Sally Madden, Diana Prugh, Sue Courchene, and Sue Stickel. Their escorts were Rob Gieringer, Frank Holloway, Jim Campbell, and Charles Phillips.

After Bruce Abel and Betsy Gerard had crowned the king and queen, the court started the dancing for the evening. The queen was presented with a bouquet of white roses and a kiss from the king.

The success of this dance was due largely to the work of the committees. Committee heads were Cindy Common, refreshments; Nancy Shelton, decorations; Alice Moore, entertainment; Jim Campbell, publicity; and Sandy Smiley and Jerry Munson, clean-up.

Excellent entertainment was provided by seven senior girls during intermission.

Blue and silver decorations added to the gaiety of the Senior Prom, "Winter Indie" December 21. Glittering silhouettes portrayed the Christmas season on murals made under the direction of Martha Hooven and Laura Johnson. Co-chairmen of the dance were Martha Ross and Glenn Cooper.

Betsy Gerard and Bruce Abel reigned over the prom with Marcia Hollencamp and Steve Huffman, Sue Courchene and Jim Campbell, Suzie Headley and Frank Holloway, Judy Mockabee and Nelson Funkhouser as their court.

Ronnie Meyer's band supplied excellent dance music during the entire evening.

Unusual entertainment — "King This Is Your Life" — was provided by the senior boys under the direction of Bob Williams.

At "Oriental Holiday," the Junior Prom on November 21, Molly Brown and Denny Daily were crowned king and queen. Members of their court were Julie McFetridge and Floyd Graham, Susan Wall and Chuck Stuart, Doris Edmonson and Dave Younce, Judy Stolle and Bill Barber.

The junior class officers — Chuck Stuart, Patty Bieser, Karen Johnson, and Bill Stephens — were the co-chairmen of the junior prom, "Oriental Holiday."

Pat Huston and Mr. Martin

With Mr. Martin, director, Mrs. Edmonson and Mrs. Daily, advisers, Bruce Abel, president; Pete Smith, vice-president; and Sue Brundige, secretary, the Senior Youth Council planned many enjoyable activities for the '68-'69 year.

The annual kickoff for the year began with an educational day at Camp Kern in September. School spirit, open houses, Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y were among the many topics discussed. Dave Grout and Nancy Gregg were co-chairmen of this big event.

After all the home football and basketball games everyone went to open houses held at the "Y" for dancing and entertainment. After the Randolph basketball game, the student body honored the varsity cheerleaders. The highlight of the open houses was the "Basket Ball" at which Suzie Headley and Nick Warring reigned as queen and king.

"Mad Midnight" was the theme for the New Year's Eve Dance. Lively decorations, horns, funny hats, and merry celebrators added to the evening's festivities. Paula Gregg and Rob Gieringer were co-chairmen for the dance.

Gridders Win Again in '56

Under the able leadership of head coach Wysocki, assisted by Mr. Armbruster and Mr. Small, the Lumberjacks wound up another successful year posting five wins as against three losses and one tie. Although things got off to a rather gloomy start with a 14 to 7 loss to West Carrollton in the Premiere, the Lumberjacks came to life and found the groove by the second week. Jack Heyde scored a total of 85 points for the year, topping Brad Boen's previous seasonal record of 82.

In the season's opener at Lebanon the Lumberjacks were able to cop only a tie, 6 to 6. After getting almost no place in the first half, the Warriors finally scored in the third period. Oakwood soon followed with a long touchdown pass to Warring off the left side tying the score.

the first touchdown in Oakwood's 32 to 12 win. In the second half Warring wasted but eleven seconds in time to add to his record tally as he raced 80 yards for a touchdown. This started things rolling as Oakwood took Jack Heyde pulled a fumble and Coan fought his way to the goal for Oakwood's third touchdown. In the final quarter the Jacks scored twice on a plunge by Oseit and a 15-yard run by Coan. Eaton scored its points on two runs by Waring.

In the closing seconds of one of the most exciting games of the year with West Milton here, Oakwood won its second straight league decision 14 to 12. Despite the breaks they were getting in the first half the Jacks didn't capitalize while the Bulldogs scored twice. In the third period the Jacks finally found themselves. Chuck Richey's fumble recovery paved the way for Jack Heyde's left end sweep and Oakwood's first touchdown. Then with only seconds remaining Nick Waring received West Milton's kick and raced 45 yards for the brilliant game-winning touchdown. Houser did the kicking.

In one of the wildest scoring exhibitions of the year Oakwood trounced over Tipp City 52 to 12. Although Tip crossed the goal line first, Oakwood came to life as halfback Jack Heyde scored with a run off the left side. From this point on the Jacks were on a tear getting touchdowns in the second quarter on three successive passes to Heyde. They continued scoring in the third and fourth quarters on two runs by backs, Warring and Coan, a quarterback sneak by Phillips, and passes from Comisar to Crew. Oakwood's kickers, especially Dick Houser, made the conversions. Late in the third period Tipp City scored again for its only other try.

Carrying their annual homecoming with a 18 to 6 victory, the Lumberjacks gained revenge over West Carrollton who had beaten them earlier in the Premiere. Near the close of the first half Jack Heyde took a pitchout from Phillips and ran it down a 62 yard drive. After a fumble, Phillips passed to Terry Coan who ran it in. Peter O'Leary got the win with Terry Coan providing the necessary margin with two touchdown runs in the second half.

On their way toward a perfect year, Randolph handed Oakwood its first defeat of the season 20 to 7. Although the Jacks drew first blood on a pass play to Heyde, Randolph dominated the remainder of the action with two touchdown plays in the first quarter and one again in the fourth to close out the game.

In Oakwood's last home game of the season, a strong Vandalia team proved too much for the Lumberjacks 32 to 20. Oakwood's scoring came entirely in the first half on fine runs by halfbacks Heyde and Warring and a pass from Phillips to Heyde with Houser making the conversions on two of the plays. The Aviators scored their points on five long runs.

The Lumberjacks finished third place in the league title by losing to Tri-County 19 to 14. Oakwood got its points on a pass to Heyde and a couple of one yard runs by Warring and King. Madison scored twice on runs by St. John.

In the final game with Wyoming, Oakwood suffered its worst defeat of the season, 39 to 21. Despite the trouble they were having the Jacks finally came to life in the third period scoring twice on a pass and a run by Heyde. Oakwood's other tally came earlier on a pass to Warring. Wyoming scored six touchdowns.

Nick Warring pounces on Pirate runner

Cagers Face Foes

For the Lumberjacks and their returning coach, Mr. Gardner, the year seemed to be one streak of bad luck after another. As a result they emerged with a 3-14 won-and-lost record for the regular season.

In the opening game the Jacks lost to Bellbrook 60 to 45. It was the fifth straight victory for Bellbrook. Bill Barber and Nick Warring led the Lumberjack's scoring with nine points apiece.

The following evening luck seemed to repeat itself as the Jacks bowed to Patterson 55 to 45. Barber had fifteen points.

In the Lebanon contest Oakwood battled on more even terms but finally succumbed 59 to 47. Warring and Barber led with ten points each.

In the following game, the Bulldogs of Fairview romped to an 81 to 53 victory. High men for the Jacks were Warring and Barber who made 14 and 12 points respectively.

During the holidays the strong Belmont team proved too much when they downed the Lumberjacks 52 to 41 in spite of the close 22 to 20 half time score.

Oakwood's first victory, 43 to 40 over Eaton, was also their first league game of the year. Once again

Barber and Warring led the way with 15 and 13 tallies.

At Northeastern, Oakwood lost 66 to 53. Senior guard Nick Warring made ten points.

The West Milton Bulldogs grabbed an early lead and went on to win over the Lumberjacks 60 to 47. Warring dumped in eighteen points.

In their second victory of the season Oakwood outlasted Phillipsburg the next night 42 to 37.

In one of the most exciting games of the year Oakwood fell before Tipp City 45 to 41.

At Troy bad luck seemed to dominate the 60 to 44 setback for the Lumberjacks. Chuck Richev's ankle injury in this fray sidelined him for a week.

At West Carrollton Oakwood suffered a 54 to 44 defeat despite the fine efforts of Bill Barber and Barney Munger who together scored 25 of Oakwood's 44 points.

Oakwood's third triumph of the season came in a thrilling game with Centerville when the Jacks won 52 to 49.

The Lumberjacks looked better in the Randolph contest than in any other game yet, but Waymire's twenty point contribution was too much as Oakwood bowed 45 to 34.

Madison-Trotwood vs. Vandalia

In the Vandalia game the Lumberjacks lost to the Aviators 50 to 38.

Madison-Trotwood jumped to an early halftime score of 28 to 14. In the final period the Lumberjacks came up, but Madison overhauled them 58 to 50. Warren and Barber again shared 14 tallies.

The Lumberjacks closed the season with a 4 to 11 loss to Fairborn, rounding out the season 3-14 won-and-lost mark. Nick Warren and Randy Thrasher

The reserve basketball team, coached by Mr. Burton, won eight games and lost nine. Active players who graded prior to the future were: Royce, Bill Bippus, Jay Back, Fred Setzer, Bill Clymer Intramurals got off to an enthusiastic start this year with Mr. Wysocki acting as adviser and Mr. Armbruster doing the refereeing.

In the senior high the National League had seven teams while the American had six. In tournament play Gorney's team won the American League title while Abel's took the National. When these two teams met for the school championship, Gorney's team won 21 to 2. Members of his team were Jim Campbell, Gene Giffin, Dave Heisey, Mike Mereness, Tom Billings, John Fleischauer, and Bill Wilcox.

The ninth grade league, composed of four teams was paced by Wagner's team which won both the tournament and league championships.

In the seventh and eighth grade leagues, teams headed by seventh grader, Joe Cockerill, and eighth grader, Bob Stutz, won their league titles.

The Oakwood High School golf team is made up of ten boys who have been playing the game for some time and hold, if not better,

Last year the team won seven games and lost two, finishing second in the City League. Oakwood golfers also placed third in District competition and out of twenty-four teams, captured fifth place in the Tri State Tournament.

This season the schedule includes nine matches with Wilbur Wright, Fairmont, Kiser, Patterson, Stivers, Chaminade, Fairview, Belmont, and Roosevelt. Each Tuesday the team practices at the Dayton Country Club.

The five top boys who appear to be in the lead are Skip Kemp, Randy Thrasher, Dave Young, Bill MacKinnon, and Walter Scheidt.

In the first two matches of the year Oakwood defeated Wilbur Wright $15\frac{1}{2}$ to 0 and Kiser 16 to 0.

It is to be seen whether the team can repeat its success last year. The team is composed of:

M. Armbruster hits infield practice

Although rain hampered many of the early baseball practices, Coach Armbruster succeeded in building a promising team centered around the seven returning lettermen—Jack Heyde, Charles Phillips, Dave Heisey, Jim Campbell, Pete Vandenberg, Terry Coan, and Fred Setzer.

This year the team is seeking to better the six and six record established for last season. Bill Bippus and Dick Morter will share first base duties while Jim Campbell should nail down second. Coan and Back will handle shortstop and Vandenberg is the probable choice at third base. The outfield situation seems to be fairly well established as Dave Heisey will be in left field while Giffin should capture the job in center and Fred Setzer in right. Jack Heyde and Charles Phillips will handle the pitching chores with sophomore Phil Geiger behind the plate.

Mr. Small fires the starting gun

The defending SWBL track champs are seeking another winning season under the able leadership of their coach, Mr. Small.

Last year, in addition to winning the SWBL, the team won the Madison Relays and placed sixth in those at Troy while compiling their record of five victories and two defeats. Robby Riber broke the school record in the low hurdles and tied the same in the high hurdles.

This year Mr. Small has scheduled seven regular dual meets as well as the Madison and Troy Relays and the SWBL meet. Grout, Warring, and Bieser seem to be set in the sprints while Jaeger and King will handle the 440, and Moeller and Stuart the 880. Kunst and Mitchell will run the hurdles and Warring should take care of both high jump and broad jump. Dave King and Clark Brooks will throw the discus and Skip Kunst will be the team's only pole vault entry.

The Timbercruks are looking forward to another successful season as they move further up into straight City Cup competition under the direction of Mr. Hume. Returning players from last year who will carry on the tradition are Tom Hart, Nick Waring, Ben Nau, Don Noe and Darrell Lauer. Other promising players are Pete Smith, Richard Hauke, Leslie Sauer, Barney Menger and Bill Kendall.

Regionals will be played May 17 and 18 and the state tourney the following weekend.

Junior Jacks Look Ahead

The most outstanding record of the year as far as junior high sports were concerned was turned in by Mr. Carr's freshman football team which went undefeated for the first time in Oakwood's history. The excellent record consisted of wins over Tipp City, Trotwood, West Carrollton, Northridge, and Randolph and a tie with Miamisburg. The Jacks scored a total of 132 points holding their opponents to only 32. High men for the team were Phil Munger who had nine touchdowns and Bob Herbruck who had eight.

The seventh and eighth grade team coached by Mr. Small also wound up a winning season with three wins, one loss and one tie.

On the basketball court the freshman team coached by Mr. Armbruster posted a very impressive record of eight wins and three losses. The Jacks won twice over West Carrollton, Beavercreek, Butler, and once over Randolph and Madison. Losses were to OSSO, Randolph, and Madison. Bruce Comisar, Jim Pinnell, and Don Huxley together scored 306 of Oakwood's 430 points.

Mr. Carr's seventh and eighth grade team was also successful as they ended the year with eight victories and only one defeat, an excellent record.

Although rain clouded the preliminary play-offs and practices, junior high tennis, coached by Miss Hayner, holds bright hopes for the future. As the team stands, five veterans—Bruce Comisar, Craig Johnson, Steve Johnson, John Sisson, and Dave Thomas will repeat as regulars while seventh grader Bob Brundige remains as one of the most promising newcomers.

More than sixty boys came out for track under Mr. Carr. Munger and Bartholomew will run the 100 yard dash along with Jack Cheney, an outstanding seventh grader. Pinnell and Cheney will take the 440 while Holz, Carr, and Stickel will run the 880, and Mitchell and Stickel will handle the low hurdles. Other events, high and broad jumps, are taken by Shively, Kievit, Carr, Stickel, Mitchell, Pinnell and Munger. On the shot-put and discuss Mr. Carr has named Herbruck, Demetri Preonas, Huxley, Miller, and Bert Smith.

Jills Continue Winning Streak

For the second consecutive year the Oakwood Lumberjills finished their season with an undefeated record. The girls, coached by Miss Havner, played eight games with six victories, two ties and no losses. The starting varsity squad consisted of all seniors with substitutions of juniors and sophomores.

Since there were 73 girls participating in hockey in the senior high, the sophomores formed their own team but lost both of their games. However, there were some regular sophomores on the varsity and reserve teams.

Industrious managers Jane Woodward, Marti Smith, Alice Moore and Brenda Miller—kept the team supplied with apples, band-aids, and other necessities.

The Jills made a good showing in the first game with Centerville by beating their opponents 6-1 on the home field. The reserves also showed the results of hard work by winning 4-0.

West Carrollton proved a little tougher than last year in the second match. The final score for varsity was 3-1, reserves 3-1.

The best competition of the year was provided by Fairmont in the third match. The Jills went to the neighboring school for the event in high spirits, but at the end of the first half the score was 2-0 Fairmont. All of the spectators agreed that the playing in the second half of this game was the best of year. The Jills came from behind and tied the score in the last few minutes. However, the reserves, though they played a good game, lost 2-1.

Fairview was last to Oakwood for their fourth game. Although the weather was quite warm for hockey and the field was bumpy, the Jills won 3-1. After the reserves game which Oakwood won 3-0, the Jills easily defeated the team in the Col. G. game.

Captain George McManus

Captain Lyle Jones

The most exciting game of the year was the one where the girls traveled to Cincy to play the University students for the fifth game. The bus ride was great fun and so was the dinner afterward. The game itself was thrilling with the Jills playing very well but tying the score.

The sixth game was a return match with West Carrollton there. The varsity ran up a fine score of 6-0, and the reserves also won 2-0. This seemed to be a game of "good will" as there were many humorous events throughout both games, such as placing the ball before driving it and so forth.

Indian Hill of Cincinnati came to Oakwood for the seventh game. Never having played Indian Hill before, everyone was curious as to the ability of their squad, especially after the first half with a no score game. However, in the second half the Jills came through with four successive goals to make the final score 4-0. Only one game was played after which the Mothers served "hot" cocoa and "sloppy joes".

Oakwood's final game of the 1956 season was held here with Northridge. The event got off to a slow start, but after the first half the Jills scored three goals to make the final score 3-0. During the varsity game, one of the Northridge girls was injured while trying to score. Fortunately it was not too serious and the rest of the game ran smoothly. The reserves also won by a score of 2-1.

The hockey team would like to thank the "pep boys"—Bob Moeller, Glenn Cooper, Steve Hulman, and Bob Williams—for their loyal and enthusiastic support and for creating an interest in hockey and girls' sports.

Closing point of the 1956 season was the traditional hockey banquet in the library. The victorious juniors and sophomores showed promise of fine material for next year in the senior-underclassman game played before the award dinner.

Miss Hayner and Mrs. Jones were presented with gifts from the team by the co-captains. Hockey awards were then given out by Miss Hayner. Four senior girls who received gold hockey pins and three-year letters were L. Johnson, C. Hummon, B. Gerard, and G. Morris. Hockey letters were also presented to the following players—seniors—Adelberg, Brown, Courchene, Craig, Cunningham, Frechafer, Goetz, Lewis, Madden, Mansfield, Mitchell, Pees, Prugh, Riber, Ross, and Van Scovk; juniors—Agenbroad, Bieser, Boian, Braun, Corwin, Devol, Edmonson, Fleischauer, Gardner, Koppe, James and Storms; sophomores—Alexander, Anagnoson, Ferguson, Nichols, and Olson.

Hockey managers who also received letters were J. Woodward, M. Smith, A. Moore, and B. Millet. As the hockey season came to its close, everyone looked back on a successful year. Now the juniors and sophomores are looking forward to next year's schedule and another undefeated record.

Basketball Enthusiasts Achieve Success

Under the supervision of Coach Hayner the Oakwood Jills proved victorious by winning six out of eight games in the 1957 season. Elected as co-captains of the team were Linda Mansfield and Linda Cunningham.

The season's opening game was played at home with Middletown. Since the Middies trounced the Jills 50-30, it was evident that lots of practice was in store for our girls, and also for the reserve team members who lost 30-10.

In the second game the Jills made a terrific come back by defeating Fairborn on their home court 46-13. Although the reserves did not follow the varsity example and lost 20-22, the games were well played by both teams.

West Carrollton journeyed to Oakwood for the third game of the season. The opposition was not too strong as the Jills made 37 baskets compared to Carrollton's 16. The varsity score ended 37-16 and the reserves, 16-9.

For the fourth game of the year Oakwood was host to Vandalia. Although the Jills were ahead by a large margin during the first half, the final score was OHS 44 Vandalia 33. The reserve's score was 19-16.

Beaver Creek played the Jills at home for the fifth game. This proved to be a high scoring game as Nichols led for Oakwood with 35 points. Final score was a victory for the Jills of 57-42. Reserves also scored high by winning 42-5.

Fairmont, playing host to Oakwood for the sixth game, defeated the varsity team 62-37. The Dragon's squad played excellent ball while the Jills seemed to be hitting an off day. However, the Oakwood reserves won 28-18.

The seventh game of the season was played on the Jills' home court against Tipp City. This game, the best played all season, was finally won by Oakwood 31-29. The reserves piled up an even larger score by winning 16-7.

The Jills traveled to Northridge for the season's final game. The varsity squad won 54-38, and the reserves won 35-22. This made the season's record for the varsity six wins and two losses, and the reserve record six wins and two losses.

Frosh Prove Triumphant

The hockey season proved successful for the freshman girls who were undefeated in all four games. This victorious record was due to the guidance of Mrs. Luf and Captain L. Kortright and C. Cunningham.

A second win over the sophomores in the first game of the basketball season was the best result of the year thus far. The team will next show its strength in the final game of the season against the juniors. The girls are looking forward to the next season.

Spring Sports Take Over

Immediately after the basketball season, sports for the Jills took on a more moderate appearance. Badminton and ping pong's popularity was due to the many tournaments held in these activities. The senior and junior highs had four events each, which consisted of both badminton and ping pong doubles and singles matches.

Some of the more industrious girls tried their luck with volleyball. This provided fun and experience for those who were interested in a "new" sport.

When the weather became warmer, all of the gym classes played softball outside on the ball diamond. Although an actual team was never formed, the girls enjoyed the chance to participate in this sport.

All of the girls from the seventh through the twelfth grades showed an active interest in these spring sports, and all look forward to playing them next year after completing the hockey and basketball seasons.

Tennis Accomplishments

The senior high girls' tennis team began its season as soon as the weather permitted. After the challenge matches were played off during spring vacation, the squad had four returning lettermen—Adelberger, L. Johnson, James, and K. Johnson. Other team members were Bryant and Nichols. Both the junior and senior squads were made up of three singles and two doubles teams.

A lot of time and hard work went into the Jills' practice session after school at the "Y." Their season consisted of six matches: two each with Hamilton, Middletown, and Fairmont.

Although all of the girls looked forward to the games, they were of special importance to seniors Laura Johnson and Judy Adelberger. Laura and Judy had played many of the same girls from the various schools since seventh grade.

The Jills' home matches were played at the "Y." The Fairmont away game was played at Walnut Hills, and the others were played at the out-of-town schools.

This year the junior high girls' tennis team consisted of Durbin, Euchenhofer, Gagel, Gardner, Hinton, Kampf, and Taylor. Members from the previous year were Taylor, Hinton, Gagel, and Kampf.

Hamilton Junior High and two of the Middle town schools headed the season's schedule. This resulted in six matches due to playing the three teams twice.

The annual spring sports picnic ended the successful season which had been supervised by Miss Hayner. It was attended by both girls' teams as well as the junior high boys' tennis team.

You Are Starting On a Journey of Unlimited Opportunities

Your graduation marks the first step of a journey that begins at perhaps the most exciting period of world history.

You are living at a time when almost unbelievable progress is being made in science, engineering, agriculture, medicine, business and transportation.

This rapid rate of progress means a skyrocketing need for qualified young men and women. America looks to you of this generation for the vision, the courage, and the determination to make the World of Tomorrow a better and happier place in which to live.

May you dedicate your life so that it will give you the satisfaction of high personal achievement and bring honor to Oakwood High School.
